

THE BELIEVING IN HORSES BOOKS

NEW RELEASE! BELIEVING IN HORSES OUT WEST

Sadie Navarro rescued a mare from an auction, and now that mare is headed to a ranch in Montana. She wants to make sure the horse is in good hands, but Montana is far away and a different world from Maryland. Will fourteen-year-old Sadie need to stand up to rugged cowboys to protect her special rescue horse?

“A thrilling coming-of-age story filled with love, lessons, and finding one’s purpose in life...” ~Robin Hutton, New York Times Bestselling Author of Sgt. Reckless: America’s War Horse

An Amazon #1 Best Seller on book launch day!

BELIEVING IN HORSES

While getting to know her new horse, Lucky, Sadie Navarro discovers ten horses waiting to be sold at auction. She commits to saving them from uncertain futures. Can 12-year-old Sadie save the horses in time...and herself?

BELIEVING IN HORSES, TOO

Sadie worries about her father serving in Afghanistan. She believes her love for horses will help distract her, but instead she faces new challenges. Will Sadie find courage in her thirteenth year and become the person she wants to be?

Teacher’s Tack for Believing In Horses provides comprehensive educational activities to accompany Believing In Horses developed by award-winning educator Edward Ormond. Teacher’s Tack for Believing In Horses Out West is coming soon!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Valerie Ormond is a multiple award-winning author of young adult fiction stories featuring realistic horse organizations, activities, and life challenges. She is a retired Naval officer, small business owner, writer, and lifelong horse lover. She lives in Bowie, MD, with her husband, two dogs, and three horses.

All books $11.95; eBook $2.99. Signed paperbacks available at www.believinginhorses.com. Also available at Amazon, Barnes and Noble, and wherever you buy books.